Choral Prelude

Gaudete!

14th Cent., Traditional Carol

Gaudete, gaudete! Christus est natus Rejoice, rejoice! Christ is born Ex Maria virgine, gaudete! of the Virgin Mary, rejoice!

Tempus adest gratiæ, hoc quod optabamus; The time of grace has come for which we have prayed;
Carmina lætitiæ devote reddamus. let us devoutly sing songs of joy.

Deus homo factus est, Natura mirante, God is made man, while nature wonders;
Mundus renovatus est A Christo regnante. the world is renewed by Christ the King.

Ezechiellis porta clausa pertransitur; The closed gate of Ezekiel has been passed through;
Unde lux est orta Salus invenitur. from where the Light has risen salvation is found.

Ergo nostra cantio, Psallat iam in lustro; Therefore we sing praises now at this time of purification;
Benedicat Domino: Salus Regi nostro. let it bless the Lord: greetings to our King.

Wexford Carol

Irish Carol, arr. John Rutter

Good people all, this Christmastime,
Consider well and bear in mind
What our good God for us has done,
In sending His beloved Son

With Mary holy we should pray
To God with love this Christmas day;
In Bethlehem upon that morn
There was a blessed Messiah born.

The night before that happy tide
The noble Virgin and her guide
Were long time seeking up and down
To find a lodging in the town.

But mark how all things came to pass:
From ev'ry door repell'd, alas!
As long foretold, their refuge all
Was but an humble oxen stall.

Near Bethlehem did shepherds keep
Their flocks of lambs and feeding sheep;
To whom God's angels did appear,
Which put the shepherds in great fear.

"Prepare to go," the angels said,
"To Bethlehem, be not afraid;
For there you'll find this happy morn
A princely Babe, sweet Jesus born."

With thankful heart and joyful mind
The shepherds went the babe to find,
And as God's angel had foretold
They did our Saviour Christ behold

Within a manger He was laid,
And by his side the Virgin maid,
Attending on the Lord of life,
Who came on earth to end all strife.

A spotless rose

Jonathan Willcocks

A spotless Rose is blowing sprung from a tender root, of ancient seers foreshowing, of Jesse promised fruit its fairest bud unfolds to light amid the cold winter,
And in the dark midnight.

The rose which I am singing where of Isaiah said, is from its sweet root springing in Mary purest maid.
For through our God's great love and might, the Blessed Babe she bare us,
And in a cold winter's night.

O magnum mysterium

Tomás Luis de Victoria (1548-1611)

O magnum mysterium O great mystery, et admirabile sacramentum, and wonderful sacrament, ut animalia viderent Dominum natum that animals should see the new-born Lord, jacentem in praesepe. as he lay in the manger!
O beata Virgo, cujus viscera meruerunt O, Blessed Virgin, whose womb Portare Dominum Christum. Alleluia. was worthy to bear our Lord Jesus Christ. Alleluia.

This Christmastide (Jessye's Carol)

Donald Frasier

Green and silver, red and gold, and a story born of old.
Truth and love and hope abide, this Christmastide.
Holly, ivy, mistletoe, and the gently falling snow.
Truth and love and hope abide, this Christmastide.
From a simple ox's stall came the greatest gift of all.
Truth and love and hope abide, this Christmastide.
Children sing of peace and joy at the birth of one small boy.
Truth and love and hope abide, this Christmastide.
Let the bells ring loud and clear, ring out now for all to hear.
Truth and love and hope abide, this Christmastide.
Trumpets sound and voices raise in an endless stream of praise.
Truth and love and hope abide, this Christmastide.

Go tell it on the mountain

African-American Spiritual, arr. Kurt Knecht

Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and ev'rywhere.
Go tell it on the mountain that Jesus Christ is born.
While shepherds kept their watching, o'er silent flocks by night behold throughout the heavens there shown a holy light.
The shepherds feared and trembled when, lo! above the earth rang out the angel chorus that hailed our Savior's birth.
Down in a lowly manger, the humble Christ was born,
and God sent us Salvation, that blessed Christmas morn

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The First Reading: Isaiah 9:2-7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness – on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Luke 2:1-20

Clergy: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see— I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!" When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Clergy: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

 The Reverend Joshua Case (10:30 pm service)

The Nicene Creed

BCP 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Christmas Prayers of the People

Reader: O God, we give thanks for the angel's message of joy for all people.

People: Make us messengers of your love and peace.

Reader: We pray that, like Mary, we may have faith to answer yes to your call to ministry.

People: Make us servants of your grace.

Reader: We pray for those who are alone or lonely and those who grieve an empty cradle or chair at the table.

People: May they be comforted by the presence of Christ in their lives.

Reader: We pray for those who are poor, hungry, homeless, sick, and suffering.

People: Make us generous innkeepers who share all we have with them.

Reader: We pray that you will guide us to Jesus to whom we may offer our gifts.

People: Help us to seek and worship only you.

Reader: We join the chorus of heavenly angels rejoicing in the birth of our Savior.

People: Glory to God in heaven and peace to all on earth. Amen.

Offertory Anthem I saw three ships

Traditional Carol, arr. Simon Preston

I saw three ships come sailing in
On Christmas day, on Christmas day;
I saw three ships come sailing in
On Christmas day in the morning.

And what was in those ships all three,
On Christmas day, on Christmas day?
And what was in those ships all three,
On Christmas day in the morning?

Our Saviour Christ and His lady,
On Christmas day, on Christmas day;
Our Saviour Christ and His lady,
On Christmas day in the morning.

Pray whither sailed those ships all three,
On Christmas day, on Christmas day?
Pray whither sailed those ships all three,
On Christmas day in the morning?

O they sailed into Bethlehem,
On Christmas day, on Christmas day,

O they sailed into Bethlehem,
On Christmas day in the morning.

And all the bells on earth shall ring,
On Christmas day, on Christmas day;
And all the bells on earth shall ring,
On Christmas day in the morning.

And all the angels in heav'n shall sing,
On Christmas day, on Christmas day;
And all the angels in heav'n shall sing,
On Christmas day in the morning.

And all the souls on Earth shall sing,
On Christmas day, on Christmas day;
And all the souls on Earth shall sing,
On Christmas day in the morning.

Then let us all rejoice again!
On Christmas day, on Christmas day;
Then let us rejoice again!
On Christmas day in the morning.

Presentation Hymn 109 The first Nowell (The choir will sing stanzas 1 & 2; Congregation joins on stanza 3 below)

The First Nowell

Then let us all with one accord sing praises to our heavenly Lord;
that hath made heaven and earth of nought,
and with his blood our life hath bought.
Refrain
No - well, No - well, No - well, No - well,
Born is the King of Is - ra - el.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP 367

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

This Proper Preface is said by the Celebrant,

Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,

God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues,

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or to lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all, presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP 364

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

BCP 364

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Communion

All are invited to receive the bread and wine of Holy Communion. Wine is served from a common cup, which you may drink or intinct from. Gluten free wafers are available at the altar rail.

Final Ending

Lully, thou little tiny child,
 By by, lully, lullay.

O sisters, too, how may we do,
 For to preserve this day;
 This poor youngling for whom we sing,
 "By by, lully, lullay.

 Charged he hath this day
 His men of might, in his own sight,
 All children young, to slay.

Then woe is me, poor child, for thee
 And ever mourn and say;
 For thy parting, nor say nor sing,
 By by, lully, lullay.

Following Communion, lights will dim and candles will be lighted for the singing of Silent Night.
All who are able are invited to kneel for singing and the Postcommunion Prayer.

The Postcommunion Prayer

BCP 366

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Christmas Offering

Our Christmas offerings will support these organizations: Care Ring is a leader in collaborative efforts to improve community health, providing health services for the uninsured, underinsured, and those lacking access to affordable, high-quality preventive health care. They annually serve more than 7,600 people in Mecklenburg County. Loaves & Fishes/Friendship Trays addresses food insecurity in our community by providing groceries and meals through a network of food pantries and as the primary Meals on Wheels program for Mecklenburg County. Please consider giving using the QR code.
